Remnants of Every Description

Tomorrow, Friday, and for those who can fit their needs to the odds and ends it means a saving of a third, a half or more. Some are soiled or mussed or otherwise imperfect. Some are just odds and ends-or short lengths, or broken sizes, or incomplete lines—and as good as they ever were. All are marked for the quickest possible clearance—and every department in the house is represented.

The Under-Price Departments

(On Each of the 2d, 3d, 4th and 5th Floors),

Apart from the remnant sections, are for the display and sale of larger lots of goods-merchandise bought especially for Friday, and such as we may see fit, from time to time, to withdraw from regular stocks and offer at reduced prices. AFFAIRS IN GEORGETOWN

ANNUAL TREAT FOR STUDENTS OF THE LINTHIBUR INSTITUTE.

Complimentary Entertainment to the Ladies Who Aided at Recent Pair General Items.

The students of the Linthicum Institute enjoyed their annual ice cream, cake and strawberry treat last evening in the large class room of the building. Through the generosity of the Linthleum Dramatic Club, a very pleasant evening was spent. After the feast speeches were in order. Mr. James H. Taylor, Mr. William A. Gordon, president of the board of trustees; Mr. R. C. Balinger and Mr. Nathan Weili made addresses on behalf of the faculty. Messrs. R. Bland Phelps, Walter D. Waugh, Edward Klock and all of those in the commencement exercises made brief addresses, the majority speaking of the benefits of the institution and expressing thanks to the teachers and faculty. Besides those mentioned, the guests of the evening were Mrs. Edward L. Dent, son and daughter, Mrs. Balinger, Mr. R. S. Balinger and Mr. George Maccabees' Euchre. Georgetown Tent, No. 6, of Maccabees gave a very pleasant euchre party last evening at its headquarters in Stohlman's Hall. Nearly 100 players were present, and a series of fifteen games was played. Ten prizes for ladies and as many for gentlemen were awarded, the playing being exceed-ingly close. After the close ice cream and cake were served.

Ladies Entertained. The ladies who assisted at the recent fair for the benefit of St. Ann's Church assembled at the parish hall last evening and enjoyed a treat provided for them by Rev. J. C. Mallon in appreciation of their services. There was a good attendance and plenty of refreshments, and toward the close of the evening dancing was in-augurated. A handsome punch bowl was-raffled off and was won by Mrs. Rose Stohlman, whose ticket, No. 3, proved to be the lucky one. The euchre party for the benefit of the building fund will be held Monday evening at Carroll Hall, G street, between 9th and 10th streets. A number of prizes have been offered. Successful Lawn Fete. A very successful lawn fete was given yesterday afternoon and evening on the lawn surrounding St. Alban's Church on Wisconsin avenue. The ladies of the church and others helped to make every one spend a most pleasant evening. A large number of persons from Georgetown and Washington attended. The fete continued until 10 o'clock.

Real Estate at Auction. Several pieces of property belonging to the estate of John J. Harrington were yesterday put up at public auction, on which bids were made, but only one piece was sold-premises 3237 M street, improved by a frame building, containing 2,640 square feet, which brought $3,300. It was bought in by Mr. E. M. P. Harris. The modern dwelling on 32d street, occupied by F. W. Daw, paperhanger, was withdrawn after a bid of $5.600 had been received. A house on East Market space and the two-story brick dwelling at 3255 M street were also withdrawn.

Soldiers Arrested. Thomas Randall, aged twenty-two; William M. Fullerton, aged twenty-one; Phillis Greenwood, aged twenty-one; William borne, aged twenty-two, soldiers from Fort Myer, were arrested last evening by Policemen Davis and Bachenheimer charges of disorderly conduct. The men were taken in custody at the Aqueduct bridge and it was alleged that they attempted to hold up a white woman. Youthful Colored Prisoner. Nathaniel Williams, a fifteen-year-old colored boy, was taken in custody yesterday afternoon as a suspect. The boy formerly worked as a waiter at the residence of Mr. J. H. Doyle, 2016 O street, but was discharged about three months ago, after all attempts at reforming him had proved unavailing. He was caught in the upper floor of the house yesterday in his stocking feet, having gained access by means of a cellar window and leaving his hat and shoes in the basement. He was detected by one of the ladies of the house and after the police.

Violating the Fish Law. Granville Carter, a colored man, was arrested this morning by Policeman C. H. was caught dipping for herring in the up-per Potomac and was brought to the station about 9 o'clock. He was immediately taken to the Police Court.

CADET CRESSEY EXPELLED.

Prompt Action Taken Regarding Hasing at the Naval Academy. Following the example set at West Point

the superintendent of the Naval Academy has caused a cadet to be dismissed for hazing. In this case, however, that of Calvin Joy Cressey, of the fourth class, of California, the accused was tried by court- ings in the Supreme Court of the District martial and regularly convicted. The state-

Cadet Calvin Joy Cressey, fourth class, was tried June 3, convened by the superintendent of the Naval Academy pursuant to the authority invested in him by the act of Congress approved June 23, 1875, having found the specification of the charge preferred against him proved, and that he was guilty of the charge, 'violation of the act of Congress approved on the 23d day of June 1875, to prevent hazing at the Naval Academy,' and said court having recommended that he be dismissed from the Naval Academy, which recommendation was approved by the superintendent, he was dismissed from the academy accordingly."

It is understood that the dismissed cadet was discovered in the act of hazing a junior in his room by compelling him to stand on his head. It was suspected that the prac-tice might spread rapidly, so speedy and drastic action was had as a deterent.

HURT HERSELF PLAYING GOLF. Playing Any More. A special to the New York World from Utica says: Miss Mary Pixley, daughter of player and a member of the Yahnundasis Golf Club, while driving from the third tee

For a time it was feared her neck was dislocated or broken. Miss Pixley apparently recovered again and entered the game, when it was seen that the injury had not entirely healed.

Miss Pixley has been told by her physician that she must never again play golf.

The representatives of Almas Temple of the Order of the Mystic Shrine will leave Saturday afternoon at 4:10 o'clock by special train over the Baltimore and Ohio railroad for Kansas City to attend the meeting of the imperial council, to be held restricted to members of the fraternity, and a number of friends of the Shriners will accompany them. entertained the imperial council last year Complaint of Notaries. The notaries of the District complain of a new order which has been promulgated by the pension office, and of which, they say, they have received no notice. Several thousand widows' pension vouchers have been returned to the different notaries for corection, causing a great deal of explana-tion. It is said to have been the custom in the past to place the name of the pensioner and address only on the voucher, leaving the name of the city off, which heretofore has been supplied by the seal of the notary. The vouchers have been returned for the addition of the words "Washington, D. C.," name. The notaries claim that they should receive some notice of any change in the regulations of the pension office. An enjoyal time was spent last evening at Gorsuch M. E. Church, corner 41/2 and L. streets southwest, the occasion being the annual strawberry festival and social, held under the auspices of the young ladies of the church. After the rendition of a musical and literary program, which was heartily applauded by the audience, the party withdrew to the Sunday school room of the church, where refreshments were served.

A good sum was realized from the affair. Moonlight Surprise Party. The neighbors and friends of C. B. Wadleigh, proprietor of Blissfield, Fort Myer Heights, repaired to his residence by twos and threes last Monday evening, a goodly company assembling during the first watches of the moon. They met there to give practical expression of sympathy, which had been entertained for some time. Mrs. Wadleigh had just returned from her long vigils at the bedside of an invalid sis-ter in Hoboken, N. J. The callers took with them decorations, magic lanterns and table luxuries, and with music, games, speeches recitations and refreshments the evening hours were passed most pleasantly. In a brief address the smiling host acknowledged that every "vestige and memory of Bachelor Hall seemed to have been lost in the bower of social delight, into which it had been transformed by fraternal neigh-bors." Among those enlisted in this moonlight incursion were Capt. E. Stewart and Mrs. Stewart, Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Lewis, Mr. and Mrs. Robert King, Mr. and Mrs. Ricker, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Baker, Mr. and Mrs. Honicker, Mrs. Joseph H. Hobson, Mrs. Matilda Bause, the Misses Hattle and Sadie McGeorge, Helen Bause, Lizzie Girard and Messrs. Calvin S. Hardy and Edwin Blake.

Mr. Yerkes, commissioner of internal revenue has informed collectors that to avoid unnecessary correspondence regarding the recent decision of the Supreme Court declaring the requirement that documentary stamps be affixed to export bills of lading to be unconstitutional, a request has been made to the Supreme Court for a rehearing of the case of Fairbanks against the United States, involving the same questions, which has been granted. The granting of this leave for a rehearing prevents the mandate being executed. Pending the final determination of the matter the commissioner states that he of the amounts paid for documentar, stamps affixed to these bills. In view, however, of the fact that the act of May 12, 1900, which provides that these claims for amounts paid for stamps used in error or excess can be considered only in cases where the claims are presented within two years after the purchase of the stamps claims may be presented for refund, but they will not be considered until the case is finally decided by the Supreme Court.
